

WATTERSON ON NEGRO

Discusses Race Question at Hamilton Club Banquet.

CORRUPTED SUFFRAGE

If Negro Is Ever Fitted for Citizenship the Process of Evolution Must Be Extraordinarily Slow—Capital and Labor Next Conflict.

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, ILL., April 9.—The annual banquet of the Hamilton Club, which is held each year on the anniversary of the surrender at Appomattox, transpired to-night in the Auditorium Hotel. A large number of guests were present and many came from distant States. Ex-Congressman Francis P. Cushman, of Tacoma, Wash., was to have delivered an address, but was unable to be present because of the death of his father. The other addresses were by Henry Watterson, of Louisville, Ky.; Rev. Thomas F. Green, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; and Edward L. Hamilton, of Michigan.

Mr. Watterson responded to the toast "Peace Between the Sections," and devoted much of his address to the negro question. He said: "The negro can never become, in any beneficent or genuine sense, an integral and recognized part of the body politic, except through the forces of evolution, which are undoubtedly at work, but which in the nature of the case must needs go extraordinarily slow. Where is the negro fit for citizenship? There are millions of negroes wholly unfit. The lot house process has been tried, and it has failed. If invested with every right enjoyed by the whites, the blacks, gaining in all things else, have brought corruption into the suffrage and discredit upon themselves. It is not a kind of madness further to press artificial methods, which, however justified theoretically from educational lookouts in Michigan, Iowa and Wisconsin, fall helpless to the ground in their practical application to the semi-barbarous toilers in the cotton fields and corn lands of Alabama, Georgia and South Carolina.

"Modern invention, which has already annihilated time and space, is surely raising sectional lines. It ought not to leave so much as a reminiscence of sectional strife. If that dread spirit should come again, its evil winds will not blow between the North and the South, but between the East and the West; the horns of the dilemma presented by extremism involving a new, irrepressible conflict between capital and labor."

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE

Volume Referring to China Is Full of Interesting Reading.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, APRIL 9.—The diplomatic correspondence relating to China in the volume of foreign relations of the United States, soon to come from the press, forms an interesting chapter, giving as it does, among other things, a history, told in diplomatic exchanges, of the important events occurring in China during the period covering the incident of the visit of the Vicksburg to Nanchang and the trouble in which American sailors and Russian soldiers were involved is given at length.

In one of his communications to Secretary Hay, concerning the Nanchang affair, Mr. Conger said: "The Russians have evidenced annoyance because the English and American gunboats came there without permission or of notice to them. The Russian Minister asked me yesterday why this was done. I replied because Nanchang was an open treaty port, and we had quite as much right there as they, and neither their permission nor notice of the coming of the gunboat was necessary. I said further that since the occupation of Nanchang by the Russians was temporary, and it was understood that they were soon to leave, it was not thought, under the unsettled conditions, to be safe to leave our interests and our citizens there unprotected during the long and ice-bound season. He said he was pleased to know this, for the Russians had all believed that the coming of the American and Vicksburg was a sort of combined naval demonstration against the Russians."

NO DEFINITE RESULT

State Board of Arbitration Had Good Moral Effect.

(By Associated Press.) LOWELL, MASS., April 9.—While the brief session of the State Board of Arbitration and Conciliation, which has come here to discover, if possible, common ground upon which the mill corporations and their 17,000 idle operatives can get together, was not productive of definite results, the moral effect of the investigation is already felt. There was a persistent rumor to-night that the mills will be opened Monday. The mill agents refused to deny or confirm the rumor, but an unusually well informed member of the Textile Council said to-night that he had definite information to the effect that at a meeting of mill treasurers this afternoon it was decided to open the mills Monday and make an effort to resume operations in all departments.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

—BY— Harry Tucker.

DAILY CALENDAR.

1908—License went up.
1906—Bought a brick house and moved from our present quarters, so the landlord could have the back fence whitewashed.

Mr. Sam Cohen has just signed a contract with that eminent comedian and end-man, Mr. Harry Glenn, for the season, with the Elks' Home Minstrel troupe, the first performance of which will be given on the fifth Wednesday in this month.

Mr. Cohen feels that he has achieved a wonderful thing in this. He found it a hard thing to land so famed a monologist, but everybody knows the tenacity of purpose which Mr. Cohen possesses, and while the signing of Mr. Glenn may not have been as easy as selling a yard of ribbon, he felt just as confident in his negotiations in the former case as in the latter.

Mr. Cohen is going to be a good minstrel manager, and we are going to take our best girl to see the show.

Owing to a certain deal that is going on, we have determined to wait until July to get our spring suit.

Mr. Chris. Evenen has been delegated as a committee of one to make arrangements about getting uniforms for the Elks' trip to Baltimore in July.

We will get several hundred suits at one time, and a suit that would cost $7.50 in the regular way will in this way cost about $3.

Therefore we will wait until July.

And Jugs, oh, freightman, touch them lightly.
And never tote them in a bag;
Tote them in your inside pocket—
Morning jugs make evening jags.
This sentiment is beautiful.
The Honorary Member says he sat up all night to hear the result in the Campbell case.
And now he is sad.
